

Please recognize that hard of hearing and deaf persons will need video mail to communicate and achieve functional equivalency. Therefore video mail should be reimbursed as the FCC is going to require voice mail, video mail should also be a requirement. This is an important relay technology that more than 29 million americans can use to communicate more effectivly.

Thank you